

490 FIELD PLACEMENT IN PSYCHOLOGY

A structured field placement that provides students with an opportunity to apply psychological principles while working in a professional setting. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor and 21 completed credit hours in psychology. Registration: Go to Course Search & Registration, register for PSY 490, Ask for an Exception, attach this completed form. Once the Department of Psychology receives your registration request, it will be reviewed and approved.

PLEASE PRINT

Semester _____

3 Credit Hours

Student's Name _____

College address _____ Phone _____

Email Address _____ Student # _____

Faculty member sponsoring project _____

Field placement site: _____

Field placement site supervisor: _____

Directions: This form provides a contract for the student regarding what is expected. The project summary defines the topic and content, and the project outcomes defines the nature of the final product on which the grade will be based (e.g., paper of a certain length).

Project summary:

Project outcomes:

Student's signature _____

Date _____

Faculty's signature _____

Date _____